

APL AUCTION RULES

1. Total Points Allocation

- Each team has 50,000 points to form a squad.

2. Team Composition

- Each team must consist of 16 players, including the owner (if playing). All slots must be filled during the auction.

3. Base Points

- Every player starts with a base price of 500 points.

4. Bidding Increment Rules (Point-Based Tiers)

Current Bid Range	Bidding Increment
500 – 1000 points	+100 points
1000 – 3000 points	+200 points
3000 – 6000 points	+500 points
6000 – 20,000 points	+1000 points
Above 20,000 points	+2000 points

5. Owner Participation

- If an owner wishes to play, they must purchase themselves for 3,000 points. This amount will be deducted from the team's total points.

6. Auction Process

- All players are treated equally in the auction. The highest bidder secures the player. Teams exit the auction once they complete 16 players.

7. Point Management

- Teams must manage their points wisely to complete 16 players within the allocated budget. Failure to do so may result in penalties or committee action.

8. Unsold Players

- Unsold players may be reintroduced at the end of the auction with the same base price of 500 points.

9. Bidding Discipline

- No fake or time-wasting bids are allowed. Violations may result in penalties, bid cancellation, or suspension from the auction.

10. Final Squad Submission

- Team owners must submit their final squad list of 16 players along with bid amounts after the auction.

11. Dispute Resolution

- Any disputes will be handled by the APL Auction Committee. Their decision will be final and binding.
